Exchange Programs
UNC Greensboro students may study abroad for a semester or year at one of our partner universities while still paying UNC Greensboro tuition and utilizing all their financial aid. This makes exchange programs one of the most accessible avenues for studying abroad. These long-standing exchange partnerships provide reliable support abroad since UNC Greensboro reciprocally hosts exchange students from these partner universities to come and study at UNC Greensboro. Programs are available for every major in over 40 countries around the world.
Virtual Global Programs UNC Greensboro students may take advantage of virtual international experiences to learn a language, access subject areas as taught by partner institutions, or even engage in an internship with an organization abroad. These affordable, credit-bearing and non-credit bearing opportunities allow students to engage internationally regardless of where they are located.
Additional Education Abroad Programs Students can also take advantage of dozens of additional approved summer, semester, and year-long study, intern, and research abroad opportunities offered by UNC Greensboro partner universities, affiliated education abroad options also offer a cost effective means to engage in global activities.
Note that participation in non-UNC Greensboro-affiliated education abroad programs requires approval from the International Programs Center in order for transfer credit to be awarded, for non-credit curricular requirements to be satisfied, or for UNC Greensboro financial aid or scholarships to apply.
International Student and Scholar Services UNC Greensboro is home to more than 700 international students and scholars who represent more than 70 countries around the world.
Specific services and advocacy are provided by the International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) for international students (both degreeseeking and short-term incoming exchange), and visiting scholars, including faculty, researchers, and observers. IPC provides services from the time of initial contact through the student or scholar’s entire experience at the university. IPC offers continued support to international students up to 36 months beyond graduation for those who participate in the Optional Practical or Academic Training post-completion employment benefit associated with the F and J visa status.
Support for select scholarships
The International Programs Center (IPC) successfully supports study abroad students applying for and receiving the Benjamin Gilman International Scholarship.
IPC also provides information and support to current students and recent graduates applying for the U.S. Fulbright Student Program and the Barry Goldwater Scholarships. Opportunities include undergraduate and graduate study, research, and teaching – often in other countries.
IPC works with faculty and units across campus to provide advice and feedback to candidates at all stages of the application process.
System-Wide Initiative: Baden-Württemberg North Carolina (BW/NC) Exchange Program
On behalf of the UNC System, IPC is responsible for the administration of the Baden-Württemberg state-to-state Exchange Program (https:// sites.google.com/uncg.edu/bwnc-exchange/home/). We established this study abroad exchange partnership between North Carolina’s 15 university campuses and the 9 Baden-Württemberg universities in Germany. The BW/NC Exchange Program allows students to continue enrollment on their home campus while studying abroad at an exchange institution in Baden-Württemberg or North Carolina for no additional tuition.
Committees
All IPC activities are carefully supervised and supported by the following committees:
• IPC Advisory Committee
• Study Abroad Committee
