

DEGREE NAME CHANGES

In the event that the name of a degree changes after a student graduates, graduates will be awarded a degree by UNC Greensboro with the official name and credential of the academic program's degree at the time of graduation and will not be able to change that degree at a later date if officially changed by the University.