Undergraduate students who fall on Academic Probation will be required to satisfy all of the following requirements during their next term of enrollment:

- Limit enrollment to a maximum of 16 credits each fall and spring term and 8 credits in the summer term until Academic Good Standing is restored.
- Earn a minimum 2.30 term GPA each term until a 2.0 cumulative GPA is restored.
- Enroll in and successfully complete the requirements of ARS 120.

Failure to satisfy all of the Academic Probation requirements above may result in Academic Suspension at the end of the probationary term. A student who is able to restore a 2.0 cumulative GPA but does not earn 67% of their credits will be placed on Academic Warning.

In cases where circumstances beyond the student’s control have interfered with the student’s academic performance, students placed on Academic Suspension may request immediate reinstatement by submitting an Academic Suspension Appeal. Contact the Students First Office, Forney Student Success Commons—Suite 101, 336-334-5730, for more information on the appeal process.

Academic Suspension

Academic Suspension will occur when an undergraduate student on Academic Probation fails to maintain either a minimum 2.30 term GPA or a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA.

All students who fall on Academic Suspension are ineligible to enroll at UNC Greensboro for one fall or spring term.

Note: Summer Session is not considered a term away for the purposes of Academic Suspension. After a one-term suspension, students may apply for readmission to the university via the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

If readmitted, upon return from Academic Suspension, an undergraduate student will be considered on Academic Probation and is required to satisfy all of the following requirements during their next term of enrollment:

- Limit enrollment to a maximum of 16 credits each fall and spring term and 8 credits in the summer term until Academic Good Standing is restored.
- Earn a minimum 2.30 term GPA each term until a 2.0 cumulative GPA is restored.
- Enroll in and successfully complete the requirements of ARS 120.

Failure to satisfy all of the Academic Suspension requirements above may result in Academic Dismissal at the end of the term. A student who is able to restore a 2.0 cumulative GPA but does not earn 67% of their semester hours will be placed on Academic Warning.

In cases where circumstances beyond the student’s control have interfered with the student’s academic performance, students placed on Academic Suspension may request immediate reinstatement by submitting an Academic Suspension Appeal. Contact the Students First Office, Forney Student Success Commons—Suite 101, 336-334-5730, for more information on the appeal process.

Academic Dismissal

Academic Dismissal will occur when an undergraduate student on Academic Probation after returning from Academic Suspension fails to maintain either a minimum 2.30 term GPA or a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA.

All students who fall on Academic Dismissal are ineligible to enroll at UNC Greensboro for one academic year.

NOTE: Summer session is not considered a term away for the purposes of Academic Dismissal. After a one-year dismissal, students may request permission to return to the university by submitting a Return from Academic Dismissal Appeal and must apply for readmission to the university via the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Contact the Students First Office, Forney Student Success Commons—Suite 101, 336-334-5730, for more information on the appeal and readmission process.

If readmitted, upon return from Academic Dismissal, an undergraduate student will be considered on Academic Probation and is required to satisfy all of the following requirements during their next term of enrollment:

• Limit enrollment to a maximum of 16 credits each fall and spring term and 8 credits in the summer term until Academic Good Standing is restored.
• Earn a minimum 2.30 term GPA each term until a 2.0 cumulative GPA is restored.
• Enroll in and successfully complete the requirements of ARS 140.

Failure to satisfy all of the Academic Dismissal requirements above may result in Academic Dismissal at the end of the term. A student who is able to restore a 2.0 cumulative GPA but does not earn 67% of their semester hours will be placed on Academic Warning.

In cases where circumstances beyond the student's control have interfered with the student's academic performance, students placed on Academic Dismissal may request immediate reinstatement by submitting an Academic Dismissal Appeal. Contact the Students First Office, Forney Student Success Commons—Suite 101, 336-334-5730, for more information on the appeal process.

Academic Appeals

In cases where circumstances beyond the student's control have interfered with the student's academic performance, students placed on Academic Suspension or Academic Dismissal may request immediate reinstatement by submitting an Academic Suspension Appeal or Academic Dismissal Appeal. Appeals must be submitted by the published deadlines. Events and/or circumstances that merit an appeal include officially documented unanticipated personal life events, officially documented unanticipated serious medical difficulty, and/or officially documented serious psychological difficulty. Students are strongly encouraged to contact the Students First Office for assistance before officially submitting an appeal.

An Academic Suspension Appeal or Academic Dismissal Appeal will be reviewed by the Academic Appeals Committee, which is convened by the Division of Student Success and the Office of the Dean of Undergraduate Studies. Once an appeal has been submitted and reviewed, students will be notified of the results of their appeal via their UNC Greensboro email account. All academic appeal decisions are final.

Failure to participate in and successfully complete the requirements of the designated Academic Recovery Program will result in immediate Academic Dismissal at the end of the term.
