

CHANCELLOR'S LIST

Undergraduate students are eligible for the Chancellor's List who meet the following criteria:

- achievement of 30 or more credits at UNC Greensboro
- a cumulative grade point average of 3.65 or higher
- current enrollment at UNC Greensboro in 12 or more credits
- be in Academic Good Standing

In the case of transfer students, at least one semester of enrollment at UNC Greensboro is required.

Recognition is accorded the recipients of this honor. The Chancellor's List is published on the University Registrar's website after all grades have been processed for the respective fall or spring term. The achievement also appears on the academic transcript.
