AFRICAN AMERICAN AND AFRICAN DIASPORA STUDIES, B.A.

The African American and African Diaspora Studies major gives students an integrated and critical understanding of the experiences and contributions of peoples of African descent throughout the world.

African American and African Diaspora Studies students will be able to apply these theories and methods to better understand the social, political, and economic problems facing people of African descent. In addition, students graduating with the major will be well prepared for leadership in the African American community, in particular, and American society in general. The African American and African Diaspora Studies Program is committed to offering an academically challenging curriculum coupled with a solid foundation of liberal arts education.

The Cultural Arts concentration is for majors interested in developing their knowledge of African American performance, art, film, and music. Students who pursue this concentration will enhance their understanding of how culture, history, politics, gender, and art intersect.
