INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE, M.F.A.

For information regarding deadlines and requirements for admission, please see the Guide to Graduate Admissions (https://grs.uncg.edu/prospective/guide/).

In addition to the application materials required by The Graduate School, applicants must submit the following items to the department:

- GRE scores
- 1-2 page personal statement including the reason for applying to the M.F.A. program in Interior Architecture at UNC Greensboro, how it relates to the candidate’s career goals, and what they may want to specialize in and why, if admitted.
- Portfolio of design work. Representative examples of design work including short written descriptions of the projects to provide an overview of the candidate’s design skills and design experience. Examples of 2-D or 3-D art work could be included, if applicable.

Applicants will be invited for a personal interview face-to-face or online after all the documents for admission are submitted.

An undergraduate degree in interior design or interior architecture is preferred. Candidates who do not hold an undergraduate degree in interior design or interior architecture but are graduates of a related environmental design program, such as architecture, industrial design, etc., may be required to complete specific undergraduate prerequisite courses in interior architecture as a part of their graduate studies. Such decisions would be based upon an individual evaluation of credentials, portfolio, and design experience.

Accelerated B.F.A to M.F.A. in Interior Architecture

Application and Admission

Qualified undergraduate IARc majors may apply for admission to the graduate program at the end of the Fall semester of the third year in the B.F.A. program. Once admitted, a student may earn a B.F.A. and a M.F.A. in five years (including Summer sessions). A cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 in the B.F.A. program is required. Additionally, standard application requirements for the M.F.A. in Interior Architecture include undergraduate transcripts, GRE scores, portfolio review, TOEFL scores for international students, recommendations, a personal statement and a personal interview (optional).

All applicants must complete the Accelerated Master’s Program (AMP) information when applying for admission to the graduate degree program.
Courses

Courses to be counted for the M.F.A. program must receive prior approval of the IARc Graduate Program Director. Admitted students may apply a maximum of 19 credits of graduate level course work toward completion of both the B.F.A. and M.F.A., provided a grade of B or better is earned in each graduate course and that graduate level requirements are fulfilled.

The M.F.A. degree requires 60 credits of graduate-level course work, and the B.F.A. requires 120 credits. Assuming 19 credits are double-counted for both degrees, students would need to complete an additional 41 credits of graduate courses to complete the M.F.A. degree.

The following courses (19 credits) may be counted toward both the B.F.A. and M.F.A. degrees:
