

GERMAN UNDERGRADUATE MINOR

The German program provides a variety of online courses for students interested in German language, literature, culture, history, philosophy, music, and art. For those who wish to study abroad, the department cosponsors academic programs in Germany and Austria.

The German Undergraduate Minor is available in traditional as well as online formats.

Program Requirements

- Minimum of 15 credit hours of courses in German, of which 6 credits must be at the 300 level or higher.
- Minimum C- grade required in courses for the minor

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required		15
GER 203	Intermediate German
GER 204	Intermediate German Topics
Select 9 credits of courses in German above GER 102

Qualified

The courses in German literature or culture in English translation listed below can only be used for minor credit if an appropriate amount of reading is done in German.

Code	Title	Credit Hours
GER 217	German Texts That Changed the World I - Read in English
GER 218	German Texts That Changed the World II - Read in English	