The M.A. in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with a concentration in French and Francophone Studies or Spanish offers two options: a thesis option requiring 30 credit hours of graduate study (24 credits of coursework and 6 credits of thesis) and a comprehensive examination (if the degree is in French and Francophone Studies) and a non-thesis option requiring 30 credit hours of coursework and a comprehensive examination.

For information regarding deadlines and requirements for admission, please see the Guide to Graduate Admissions.

Admission to M.A. in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures assumes completion of an undergraduate program with a minimum of 24 credit hours in French or Spanish, as appropriate, above the 204 level. Candidates lacking the prior academic language training may be admitted provisionally (contact relevant Director of Graduate Study for details).

In addition to the application materials required by The Graduate School, applicants to the M.A. in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures must provide the following to the Director of Graduate Study:

- 500-word Statement of Purpose in French or Spanish, highlighting prior experiences and explaining reasons for applying and expectations for the program.
- 3-to 5-minute unscripted tape, audio CD (in standard format), or digital audio file in French or Spanish demonstrating speaking ability through discussion of topics related to the program of study.
- an analytical paper in French, Spanish, or English written for a prior course in the humanities or a comparable writing sample.
