

WOMEN'S, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY STUDIES, B.A.

Student Learning Goals

1. To explain how gender is produced within social institutions and how these institutions affect individual lives.
2. To discuss histories of feminism as a social movement and feminist theories of social transformation.
3. To explain theories of embodiment, such as how bodies are constituted within social and biological discourses, or the relationship between embodiment and subjectivity, consciousness, and agency.
4. To critique how hegemonic feminism includes and/or excludes different theoretical perspectives, such as theories of racial formation and theories of sexuality.
5. To analyze the mutual constitution of gender, race, ethnicity, class, sexuality, nationality, and religion.
6. To explain gender, race, ethnicity, class, sexuality, nationality, and religion from the perspective of postcolonial and transnational frameworks of analysis.
7. To identify how feminist theories are constructed and enacted both inside and outside of the classroom.
8. To identify the intellectual paradigms and political perspectives of different modes of knowledge production or interdisciplinary methodologies.
9. To analyze scholarship and a variety of media in order to create original arguments in writing.
10. To apply different modes of feminist praxis, such as fieldwork, performance, or research.

Accelerated B.A. to M.A.

Application and Admission

Undergraduate students at UNC Greensboro may apply for admission to the Accelerated Master's Program in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. A cumulative undergraduate GPA of at least 3.5, based on at least 30 credit hours earned at UNC Greensboro is required. Applicants must have completed at least 60 credits and may not apply for admission to the AMP before the first semester of the junior year.

All applicants must complete the Accelerated Master's Program information as part of the application for admission to the M.A. program.

Standardized entrance exams (GRE or MAT) are optional for AMP students, although they may be useful in future applications for graduate fellowships.

Applications to the Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies program require the following additional items: a statement of purpose; an academic writing sample; and a resume.

Courses

The M.A. degree requires 36 credit hours of graduate-level course work. AMP students may apply a maximum of 12 credits of graduate-level course work toward completion of both the undergraduate and the graduate degrees, provided that they earn a grade of B (3.0) or better in each graduate course and fulfill graduate-level requirements. No more than 9 credits at the 500 level may be counted toward the M.A. degree. Please see the University Catalog for a full description of the M.A. degree requirements.

The following courses may be counted toward both the B.A. and the M.A. degrees. All courses leading to the completion of the M.A. degree must be approved by the WGS Graduate Program Director.
