

WOMEN'S, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY STUDIES, M.A.

The interdisciplinary M.A. in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies requires 36 credit hours and prepares graduates for professional employment and for further study. Course options may include a component of professional skills development to prepare students for immediate employment in non-faculty positions in education, in non-profit organizations, government, or business. Students may also develop a plan of study leading to the pursuit of doctoral degrees in women's and gender studies or other professional degrees for employment in such diverse areas as counseling, university teaching, the arts, and business.

For information regarding deadlines and requirements for admission, please see <https://grs.uncg.edu/programs/>.

In addition to the application materials required by the Graduate School, applicants must submit:

- A statement of purpose explaining how the WGS M.A. program aligns with their personal, academic, and/or professional experience and goals.
- An academic writing sample such as a research paper from an academic course.

If applying for an assistantship or other funding, applicants must also submit an academic and professional resume or CV (curriculum vitae).

M.A. students in WGS may apply for concurrent study in a graduate certificate program in such fields as Non-Profit Management or African-American Studies.

Accelerated B.A. to M.A. in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

Application and Admission

Undergraduate students at UNC Greensboro may apply for admission to the Accelerated Master's Program in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. A cumulative undergraduate GPA of at least 3.5, based on at least 30 credit hours earned at UNC Greensboro is required. Applicants must have completed at least 60 credits and may not apply for admission to the AMP before the first semester of the junior year.

All applicants must complete the Accelerated Master's Program information as part of the application for admission to the M.A. program.

Standardized entrance exams (GRE or MAT) are optional for AMP students, although they may be useful in future applications for graduate fellowships.

Applications to the Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies program require the following additional items: a statement of purpose; an academic writing sample; and a resume.

Courses

The M.A. degree requires 36 credit hours of graduate-level course work. AMP students may apply a maximum of 12 credits of graduate-level course work toward completion of both the undergraduate and the graduate degrees, provided that they earn a grade of B (3.0) or better in each graduate course and fulfill graduate-level requirements. No more than 9 credits at the 500 level may be counted toward the M.A. degree. Please see the University Catalog for a full description of the M.A. degree requirements.

The following courses may be counted toward both the B.A. and the M.A. degrees. All courses leading to the completion of the M.A. degree must be approved by the WGS Graduate Program Director.
