Graduate

The faculty of the Department of Economics has an established national reputation for scholarship in applied microeconomic research. The department's graduate programs are specially focused on developing the theoretical and econometric tools required to formulate and interpret quality empirical research and the data handling and communication skills required to conduct and disseminate the outcomes of that research.

Programs of study offered by the Department of Economics at the graduate level include both a Master of Arts in Applied Economics (M.A.) and Doctor of Philosophy in Economics (Ph.D.) Students without a completed master's degree in economics can apply directly to the Ph.D. program through the M.A. in Applied Economics Doctoral Track. This enables prospective students with only a bachelor's degree to be admitted to the Ph.D. program and complete the M.A. in Applied Economics degree as part of their graduate plan of study.
