

ARCHAEOLOGY (ARC)

ARC 300X Experimental Course 1-6

This number reserved for experimental courses. Refer to the Course Schedule for current offerings.

ARC 381 Study Abroad Experience in Archaeology 3

Students are immersed in a study abroad experience acquiring specific knowledge of local and regional archaeological sites and alternate methods and theoretical approaches to the discipline.

Prerequisites: Permission of Archaeology Program Director.

Notes: May be repeated for up to 9 credit hours (up to three different overseas archaeology courses, but at the 200-300 level equivalency only). ARC subject, SAB transferred credit hours, become ARC 381 credit hours with approval.

ARC 400X Experimental Course 1-6

This number reserved for experimental courses. Refer to the Course Schedule for current offerings.

ARC 493 Honors in Archaeology 3

Opportunity for qualified students to undertake an Honors Project in Archaeology.

Prerequisites: 3.30 GPA. 12 s.h. in the major, permission of instructor;

Notes: May be repeated for credit when topic varies, for up to 6 hours of credit.

ARC 498 Special Archaeological Research 1-3

Opportunity for Archaeology students to have directed instruction on problems of special archaeological interest.

Prerequisites: Permission of Archaeology Program Director.

Notes: May be repeated for credit when topic varies, for up to 3 hours of credit.

ARC 499 Internship in Archaeology 1-3

Opportunity for off-campus, high-impact experience in the community, such as in a museum setting, a cultural management firm, a heritage preservation program, a government agency, or a related non-profit.

Prerequisites: Permission of Archaeology Program Director.

Notes: May be repeated for credit when host/venue varies, for up to 9 hours of credit.