LIB 101 Information Literacy for Health and Wellness 1
An introduction to information literacy skills and how to apply them to health information. This course will serve as a bridge course for students who transfer certain two credit health and wellness courses into UNCG.
MAC: MAC Health and Wellness Prerequisites: Successful completion of a two credit MAC health and wellness course at another institution and Instructor permission.