CAEP is the single specialized accreditor for educator preparation, and administers NCATE accreditation.

The School of Education is a professional school that strives to prepare outstanding practitioners, study the profession, create and disseminate new knowledge in professional education, and engage in field services and apply research findings. A general discussion of Teacher Education may be found under School of Education Licensure Programs in this catalog.

The SOE offers over 20 different graduate degree programs, many of which include a range of specialty concentrations to allow our students to focus on topics most relevant to their interests and professional goals. Degree programs include 5 undergraduate programs and 15 graduate programs spanning master’s and doctoral degrees. The 20 degree programs are complemented by numerous non-degree certificate and add-on licensure programs.
