

COMMUNITY-ENGAGED SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE

The Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Community Engaged School Leadership is designed to immerse students in knowledge and skills related to equity-centered ways that communities and K-12 educational institutions can, should, and do engage collaboratively. It is intended to help support the development of future leaders who can help build strong, beneficial ties between K-12 schools and communities.

For information regarding deadlines and requirements for admission, please see <https://grs.uncg.edu/programs/>.

Applicants must possess a B.A. or B.S. from an accredited university. It is recommended that applicants have experience working in or with K-12 schools.

In addition to the application materials required by the Graduate School, applicants must submit a personal statement and a resume.
