ELEMENTARY EDUCATION AND SPECIAL EDUCATION: GENERAL CURRICULUM DUAL MAJOR, B.S.

The Departments of Teacher Education and Higher Education and Specialized Education Services offer a dual major in elementary education and special education. Students completing the dual major will have initial licensure in elementary education K–6 and special education: general curriculum K–12. Students must be admitted to the teacher education program during the fall of their sophomore year and will begin professional course work spring of the sophomore year.

The 127 credit hour dual major in elementary education and special education follows the admission guidelines to the School of Education teacher programs regarding

1. Achievement of minimum passing score requirements set forth by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction on the Professional Assessment for Beginning Teachers (Praxis I);
2. The recommendation of the departments; and
3. Completion of at least 12 credits at UNC Greensboro (waived for transfer students who meet GPA requirements, have departmental recommendation, and have passed the Professional Assessment for Beginning Teachers (Praxis I)).

Additional departmental requirements include:

1. A grade of C or better in a qualifying course* and
2. Completion of all courses needed to fulfill the UNC Greensboro general education requirements (GEC).

A minimum 3.0 GPA is required for admission.

* Additional departmental requirements include a grade of C or better in a qualifying course: either TED 250 or SES 250.
