The College of Arts and Sciences. At the masters level, we offer two bachelor of science degrees: Elementary Education and Secondary (High School) Social Studies.

Our program offerings range from those who are brand new to teaching to those who wish to pursue an advanced degree in education. At the bachelor of science level we offer degrees in Elementary Education, Middle Grades Education, and Secondary (High School) Social Studies Education. Other content areas at the secondary level are offered through the College of Arts and Sciences. At the masters level, we offer two options, one for initial licensure (Master of Arts) and one for advanced licensure (Master of Education).
