This program is being discontinued pending SACSCOC approval and is not accepting applications for admission. The University is still authorized to offer the program and issue the associated credential for students who are currently enrolled in the program.

The Inter-Institutional Distance Education Agreement for Learning and Leadership in Communication Sciences and Disorders (IDEALL CSD) Ph.D. is an extension of the UNC Greensboro CSD Ph.D. program to part-time doctoral students living in the western region of North Carolina and will prepare those who pursue careers in higher education for research careers in the academy and other settings. The IDEALL CSD Program prepares both UNC Greensboro and WCU graduates to teach and mentor undergraduate and graduate students in the areas of research and clinical supervision delivery as they create new knowledge. The educational objective of IDEALL CSD is to prepare teachers, scholars, and professional leaders. This objective will be achieved by providing an innovative, responsive, high quality, and accessible course of study to part-time CSD doctoral students who have demonstrated excellent academic achievement in CSD or closely-related disciplines.

IDEALL CSD is a UNC Greensboro degree. Students apply to IDEALL CSD through the UNC Greensboro Graduate School and graduate with a UNC Greensboro graduate doctoral degree.

The program requires a minimum of 63 credit hours. Students who enter with a master's degree are required to earn 51 credits of course work and 12 credits minimum of dissertation. IDEALL CSD doctoral students will follow the exact course requirements that on-campus UNC Greensboro CSD Ph.D. students are required to take.

The IDEALL CSD Ph.D. program requires students to obtain 63 credit hours with 27 credits completed through WCU and 36 credits completed through UNC Greensboro. WCU courses will be delivered in a face-to-face format while UNC Greensboro courses will be delivered via distance/hybrid/face-to-face technologies.

<sup>2</sup> IDEALL CSD doctoral students select a related minor area theme and take courses from one or more disciplines around that theme. Thus, not all the minor area courses will be taken in the same department. The Intersecting Disciplines are individualized for each doctoral student and will be the same requirement for WCU IDEALL CSD students. Many of our UNC Greensboro CSD students have selected courses from the Psychology, Gerontology, and Special Education Departments for their Intersecting Disciplines topic area. With the approval of the IPPC, select at least 12 credits of course work in a related discipline that is centered around a theme rather than a single area of study (i.e. aging, neuroscience, leadership, clinical supervision, etc).
