

EVENT PLANNING UNDERGRADUATE MINOR

---

This minor complements a number of majors, including Biology, Business Administration, Communication Studies, Counseling and Educational Development, Geography, History, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Human Development and Family Studies, Kinesiology, Political Science, Psychology, Public Health, and Social Work.

Students interested in a minor in Event Planning can declare their minor with the University Registrar's Office, but should also contact the Department of Community and Therapeutic Recreation to speak with an advisor.

Program Requirements

- Minimum of 16 credit hours.

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required		16
CTR 101	Leisure and American Lifestyles
CTR 213	Programming in Recreation and Events
CTR 423	Meeting and Event Planning and Management
CTR 429	Special Event Management
Select one from the following:
CTR 214	Inclusive Recreation
CTR 415	Financing and Budgeting in Recreation and Parks
CTR 416	Management in Recreation and Parks	