RECREATION AND SPORT MANAGEMENT UNDERGRADUATE MINOR

This minor complements a number of majors, including Biology, Business Administration, Communication Studies, Counseling and Educational Development, Geography, History, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Human Development and Family Studies, Kinesiology, Political Science, Psychology, Public Health, and Social Work. Sixteen credit hours are required.

Students interested in a minor in Recreation and Sport Management can declare their minor with the University Registrar's Office, but should also contact the Department of Community and Therapeutic Recreation to speak with an advisor.

Program Requirements

- Minimum of 15 credit hours.

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required		3
CTR 101	Leisure and American Lifestyles
Select 4 CTR courses at the 200-level or higher		12