NURSING, M.S.N.

The Master of Science in Nursing degree offers two concentrations: Nursing Education and Nursing Leadership and Management.

The concentration in Nursing Education requires 38 credit hours and is designed to be completed in seven semesters, beginning in August and ending in December of the final year. The concentration in Nursing Leadership and Management requires 37 credit hours and is designed to be completed in six semesters of full-time study, beginning in August and ending in May of the final year.

All degree requirements must be met within five academic years of initial enrollment. In addition to courses required for the degree program, students may enroll in independent study courses to enhance their program of study. No foreign language is required.

Please refer to the preceding enrollment requirements for all graduate nursing students.

For information regarding deadlines and requirements for admission, please see the Guide to Graduate Admissions (https://grs.uncg.edu/prospective/guide/).

The Associate Dean for Academic Programs reviews the credentials of each applicant in collaboration with faculty from each specialty area. Exceptions to the requirements can be made on the recommendation of the faculty. The Associate Dean for Academic Programs forwards the admission recommendation to the Dean of Graduate Education who makes the final decision.

Applicants must have the following credentials:

- Current unrestricted licensure as a registered nurse in one of the fifty states or validated credentials by CGFNS for international applicants. Residents of North Carolina must hold unrestricted North Carolina licensure as a registered nurse.
- Baccalaureate degree in nursing from a program accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency.
- Minimum of one year clinical experience full time.
- A personal statement is required for consideration of admission to the Nursing Education Concentration M.S.N. or the Nursing Leadership and Management Concentration M.S.N. program.
- An interview is required for selected applicants for the Nursing Education Concentration M.S.N. or the Nursing Leadership and Management Concentration M.S.N. program.
- Nonresidential international students are required to participate in a telephone interview.
