MUSIC TECHNOLOGY,
POST-BACCALAUREATE
CERTIFICATE

The Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Music Technology provides students the opportunity to demonstrate competency in music technology. This P.B.C. may benefit students’ own creative work and expand their career options upon completion. Students currently enrolled in the M.M., D.M.A., and Ph.D. programs can enhance their programs by demonstrating competence in music technology. Also, the P.B.C. can be an option for non-degree seeking students.

For information regarding deadlines and requirements for admission, please see https://grs.uncg.edu/programs/.

An earned bachelor’s degree in Music; in exceptional cases, a student with an undergraduate degree outside of music may be considered.

* Must be taken at UNC Greensboro.

 Applied composition lessons, focused on music technology projects. May be repeated one time. A maximum of 4 credits may be counted toward the certificate.

Exit Requirements

The required recital may be 0-1 credits, and can take many forms: a half recital in Composition or Performance, or providing technical support for another student’s recital, for example. Completion of all course work with a grade of B or better is required. Degree-seeking students must include a faculty member member with expertise in music technology on their doctoral advisory committee or master’s comprehensive exam committee. Testing conditions will follow those outlined in the handbook for graduate study in music for the student’s degree program.
