MUSIC THEORY, M.M.

The M.M. in Music Theory requires 34 credit hours. Thesis and non-thesis options are offered. At least one half the course work credited toward the degree must be in 600-level courses or above. A diagnostic examination is administered prior to the first semester of enrollment. The capstone experience is a required written comprehensive examination in the final semester and a thesis or document.

Additional policies and regulations are found in the Graduate Music Handbook, https://vpa.unCG.edu/music/music-current-students/graduate/.

For information regarding deadlines and requirements for admission, please see the Guide to Graduate Admissions (https://grs.unCG.edu/prospective/guide/).

In addition to the application materials required by The Graduate School, applicants must provide:

- A statement of intent that outlines their background, interest in music theory, and career goals.
- A scholarly paper on music, preferably one with an analytical focus.
- Applicants whose materials pass an initial screening by the music theory faculty will be invited for an interview that tests sight-reading, dictation, analysis, and keyboard skills. A diagnostic written exam is administered prior to the interview.
